Student Satisfaction with Faculty Performance Remains High

Posted by David Logan on 07/15/2013 at 10:15 AM

I reported last year that RWU Law students praise the quality of instruction that they receive. <http://law.rwu.edu/blog/student-satisfaction-their-rwu-law-faculty-remains-high>

The most recent set of student evaluations (rated on a 1-5 score, with 4 being “very good” and 5 “excellent”) is consistent:

1L courses (Contracts, Civ Pro, Property, Torts, and Legal Methods): average of above 4.3

Upper level required courses: average of above 4.0

Experiential Learning: average above 4.8 (with our new In-House Counsel Clinical Externship earning a perfect score of 5.0!).

This data confirms that RWU provides a rigorous education, in a student-centered, supportive environment, delivered by skilled and dedicated teachers.
